PER CURIAM: Del Webb Communities Inc., Pulte Homes, Inc., and South Carolina State Plastering, LLC appeal the circuit court's denial of their request to reinstate a previously existing injunction restricting communications between Anthony and Barbara Grazia's attorneys and other potential class members in this defective stucco litigation. We affirm pursuant to Rule 220(b)(2), SCACR, and the following authorities: Peek v. Spartanburg Reg'l Healthcare Sys., 367 S.C. 450, 454, 626 S.E.2d 34, 36 (Ct. App. 2005) ("The grant or denial of an injunction by the [circuit] court will not be reversed absent an abuse of discretion."); id. ("An abuse of discretion occurs when the decision of the [circuit] court is unsupported by the evidence or controlled by an error of law."); Eldridge v. City of Greenwood, 308 S.C. 125, 128, 417 S.E.2d 532, 534 (1992) ("An order limiting communications between parties and potential class members should be based on a clear record and specific findings that reflect a weighing of the need for a limitation and the potential interference with the rights of the parties." (emphasis added) (quoting Gulf Oil Co. v. Bernard, 452 U.S. 89, 101 (1981)); id. at 127, 417

S.E.2d at 534 ("Orders which severely limit [plaintiff's] contact with potential members of the class are authorized only under the general grant of power in Rule 23(d)(2). The specific grants of power in Rule 23(d), SCRCP[,] are directed towards notifying the absent parties of the pending litigation.") (emphasis added).
