authority: State v. Price, 368 S.C. 494, 499, 629 S.E.2d 363, 366 (2006)

("Generally, appellate courts will not set aside convictions due to insubstantial errors not affecting the result. Thus, an insubstantial error not affecting the result of the trial is harmless where guilt has been conclusively proven by competent evidence such that no other rational conclusion can be reached. Where a review of the entire record establishes the error is harmless beyond a reasonable doubt, the conviction should not be reversed." (citations omitted)).
