PER CURIAM: Mary Wiggins, as personal representative of Kelvin Marquise Wiggins (Kelvin), appeals the trial court's award of summary judgment to Enterprise Leasing Company-SouthEast, LLC (Enterprise). On appeal, Wiggins argues the trial court erred in holding (1) Kelvin was not a permissive user and therefore, was not an insured and (2) Kelvin's injury did not arise out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of the vehicle. We affirm<sup>1</sup> pursuant to Rule 220(b), SCACR, and the following authorities:

1. As to whether the trial court properly awarded summary judgment to Enterprise because Kelvin was not a permissive user: George v. Fabri, 345 S.C. 440, 452, 548 S.E.2d 868, 874 (2001) ("The purpose of summary judgment is to expedite disposition of cases which do not require the services of a fact finder."); Turner v. Milliman, 392 S.C. 116, 121-22, 708 S.E.2d 766, 769 (2011) ("When reviewing a grant of summary judgment, appellate courts apply the same standard applied by the trial court pursuant to Rule 56(c), SCRPC."); id. at 122, 708 S.E.2d at 769 ("Summary judgment is appropriate when the pleadings, depositions, affidavits, and discovery on file show there is no genuine issue of material fact such that the moving party must prevail as a matter of law."); Harbit v. City of Charleston, 382 S.C. 383, 389-90, 675 S.E.2d 776, 779 (Ct. App. 2009) ("In determining whether any triable issues of fact exist, the evidence and all reasonable inferences must be viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party."); Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. v. Edwards, 294 S.C. 368, 370, 364 S.E.2d 750, 751 (1988) (affirming the denial of coverage where Mother was the only permissive user of the vehicle per the rental agreement and had no express or implied authority to delegate permission to Daughter).

2. As to whether the trial court properly awarded summary judgment to Enterprise because Kelvin's injury did not arise out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of the vehicle: Futch v. McAllister Towing of Georgetown, Inc., 335 S.C. 598, 613, 518 S.E.2d 591, 598 (1999) (stating an appellate court need not address remaining issues when disposition of a prior issue is dispositive).

AFFIRMED.

SHORT, KONDUROS, and GEATHERS, JJ., concur.
