PER CURIAM: Andrew and Kimberly McIntire and Sequest Development Company (collectively, Appellants) appeal the circuit court's order denying their joint motion for clarification.¹ Appellants argue the circuit court erred in holding

¹ On May 18, 2023, this court received a letter from the McIntires explaining that they had settled their claims against Sequest Development Company and as a part the subcontractors were no longer parties to this case after the order dismissing the case was reversed on appeal. We affirm.

We hold the circuit court properly denied Appellants' motion and concluded the subcontractors were no longer parties to this case on remand. See Atl. Coast Builders & Contractors, LLC v. Lewis, 398 S.C. 323, 329, 730 S.E.2d 282, 285 (2012) ("[A]n unappealed ruling, right or wrong, is the law of the case."); Rumpf v. Massachusetts Mut. Life Ins. Co., 357 S.C. 386, 398, 593 S.E.2d 183, 189 (Ct. App. 2004) ("Any unappealed portion of the trial court's judgment is the law of the case, and must therefore be affirmed."); Dreher v. S.C. Dep't of Health & Env't Control, 412 S.C. 244, 250, 772 S.E.2d 505, 508 (2015) ("Thus, should the appealing party fail to raise all of the grounds upon which a lower court's decision was based, those unappealed findings—whether correct or not—become the law of the case."); Judy v. Martin, 381 S.C. 455, 458, 674 S.E.2d 151, 153 (2009) ("Under the law-of-the-case doctrine, a party is precluded from relitigating, after an appeal, matters that were either not raised on appeal, but should have been, or raised on appeal, but expressly rejected by the appellate court."); C. I. T. Corp. v. Corley, 196 S.C. 339, 343 13 S.E.2d 440, 442 (1941) (holding that an unappealed order becomes the law of the case and the circuit court is "wholly without power or jurisdiction to revoke, vacate, overrule or reverse the same").

AFFIRMED.²

of the settlement, they had released all of their claims against the various subcontractors in this appeal. The McIntires thus requested their appeal be dismissed. Accordingly, the McIntires' appeal is dismissed.

² We decide this case without oral argument pursuant to Rule 215, SCACR.
