Social Services, of Aiken, for Respondent.

PER CURIAM: Samuel L. Setters, Jr., appeals a family court's order finding he sexually abused one of his minor children; placing custody of his minor children with their mother, Candice Cook; ordering Setters and Cook to complete placement plans; and granting Setters overnight visitation with four of his minor children. Counsel for Setters filed an affidavit pursuant to Ex parte Cauthen, 291 S.C. 465, 354 S.E.2d 381 (1987), stating she reviewed the hearing transcript and believed the appeal lacked merit. After a thorough review of the record and the family court's findings of facts and conclusions of law pursuant to Cauthen, we affirm the family court's ruling and relieve Setters's counsel.¹

AFFIRMED.²

SHORT, KONDUROS, and GEATHERS, JJ., concur.

¹ After review, this court was initially concerned that the family court granted Setters overnight visitation despite finding he sexually abused one of his minor children. However, the family court subsequently issued an order on June 15, 2017, altering that visitation to provide the overnight visitation would be supervised.

² We decide this case without oral argument pursuant to Rule 215, SCACR.
